

Church of the Resurrection

To Know Christ and Make Him Known

---

Church of the Resurrection is a growing orthodox evangelical Anglican Church that seeks to “know Christ and make Him known” in the greater Baltimore area through bold gospel proclamation, intergenerational Anglican worship, intentional evangelism and discipleship, training leaders, and serving in partnership with like-minded local, national and international ministries.

Position: Director of Women’s Ministry

The Director of Women’s Ministry fulfills Resurrection’s mission to “Know Christ and Make Him Known” by leading ministries and teams that evangelize, disciple, and connect women of all ages at Resurrection.

Job Overview

1. Love Jesus and cultivate a heart for Him and His people at Resurrection.
2. Provide overall leadership for Women’s Ministries at Resurrection.
3. Provide individual and corporate pastoring to the women at Resurrection.
4. Teach and oversee other teachers to provide high quality weekly Bible Studies.
5. Develop opportunities for women to connect and encourage one another in large groups, small groups, and one on one meetings including but not limited to fellowship events, a yearly retreat, leadership development opportunities, outreach events and discipleship training.
6. Assist in leading corporate worship and supporting worship ministries.
7. Fulfill other pastoral responsibilities in accordance with calling, gifting, and training.

Skills, Gifts and Passions for Ministry

- A leader with a passion for Jesus Christ and God’s people who can communicate the gospel of Jesus Christ with joy and clarity in word and deed.
- Genuine love for people and a servant’s heart to invest and disciple women.
- A desire to see Resurrection flourish and grow in Christ by serving the spiritual, physical, emotional, and relational needs of women and their families.
- A heart and desire for pastoral ministry and the work of teaching, leading, and equipping women.
- An ability to teach the Bible to women in small group and large group settings.
- An ability to train individuals and teams of women to lead other women in ministry.
- A desire to serve and partner with staff and lay leaders to serve the women of Resurrection.
- A desire to lead the congregation to encounter Christ in and through corporate worship and prayer.

Position Description / Salary and Benefits

- Title: Director of Women's Ministry
- Reports to: David Drake, Rector
- Full or Part Time: Resurrection seeks to fill a full-time position but may be flexible given the needs and gifts of a particular candidate. Flexible but regular schedule; one mid-week day off; occasional Saturday; Sunday mornings unless other ministry responsibilities preclude.
- Compensation: Competitive salary based on experience and full or part time commitment.

Other Duties and Responsibilities

- Participation in weekly staff meetings on Wednesday from 9:30 – 11am.
- Participation in All Parish Events.

Inquiries

Please send an introductory email/cover letter and resume to Fran Lenzo at flenzo1@verizon.net.

Please include answers to the following questions in your email/cover letter:

- In a few sentences, describe your prior experience in Women's Ministry.
- In a few sentences, describe why you are interested in this position and why you might be a good fit to fulfill the job description.